

Pay for College with Confidence

Whether your student is heading to campus for the first time or returning for another year, it's an exciting and busy time. As you finalize course registration, move-in dates, and orientation schedules, it's also a great time to review how you can use your CollegeCounts account to cover qualified education expenses.¹

To help things go smoothly, here are a few reminders to keep in mind when request withdrawals.

- ✓ Know Which Expenses Qualify
Funds can be used for qualified expenses¹ at a variety of schools nationwide. For more details on eligible schools and qualified expenses, visit: CollegeCounts529.com/benefits/use-of-funds.
- ✓ Choose the Payment Method That Works for You
CollegeCounts offers flexible withdrawal options. Withdrawals can be paid to the account owner, the beneficiary or directly to the college.

Withdrawals can be conveniently requested by logging into your account at CollegeCounts529.com. It's a simple and secure way to access your funds and pay for college expenses.
- ✓ Time Your Withdrawals Carefully
Request your withdrawal 7-10 days prior to the due date to allow time for the college to receive and properly credit your payment, helping you avoid last-minute stress or potential delays.

Using your funds is an important step in putting your savings to work. With a bit of planning and attention to timing, you can confidently cover expenses and stay on track.

CollegeCounts Scholarship Winners

Congratulations to the 2026 CollegeCounts Scholarship recipients! This year, we awarded scholarships worth over $1.1 million to 335 students entering college in August 2026. CollegeCounts is proud to recognize the hard work and dedication of these students, and we are excited to see where their journeys take them next!

Over the years, CollegeCounts has awarded over $13 million to move more than 3,800 Alabama students, and we continue to support the achievements of tomorrow's leaders. Congratulations to the Class of 2026! This milestone is just the beginning of all the great things ahead!

Get Ready for School & Save During Alabama's Sales Tax Holiday

Mark your calendars for the Alabama Back-to-School Sales Tax Holiday which runs from July 17-19, 2026, in participating municipalities throughout the state.

Now is the perfect time to purchase certain school items like computers, clothes, and other school supplies. Items purchased during the sales tax holiday are exempt from Alabama state tax (though local sales tax may still apply).

To see participating counties and municipalities, as well as rules and guidelines, visit the Alabama Department of Revenue's website at Revenue.Alabama.gov and search "2026 school sales tax holiday".

"Your future is created by what you do today, not tomorrow."

– Robert Kiyosaki

CollegeCounts 5/29 Giveaway Reminder

Don't miss your chance to register! CollegeCounts is offering 29 new parents or grandparents in Alabama a chance to win a $529 contribution to a CollegeCounts account. Entries will be accepted through July 15th. Winners will be selected at random and notified by July 31st.

For parents adjusting to life with a newborn or grandparents wanting to provide a lasting gift, this opportunity offers a simple way to get started. Registering takes just a few minutes but could be a step toward a future full of possibilities for the child you love.

Test Your CollegeCounts Knowledge!

1. True or False: My beneficiary must attend an Alabama school.

☐ TRUE ☐ FALSE

2. Which of these are considered qualified higher education expenses?¹

- A. Tuition & Fees
- B. Computer
- C. Room & Board
- D. All of the Above + more!

Answers

- 1. Answer: False!
 - 2. D! All of the Above + more.
- Your CollegeCounts account can be used for a wide range of qualified expenses¹ at eligible institutions, not just tuition and books.
- Many beneficiaries will attend Alabama schools; however, funds may be used at eligible two- and four-year colleges and universities, as well as certain apprenticeship programs, K-12 expenses and postsecondary credentialing expenses.

The CollegeCounts 529 Fund is a qualified tuition program under Section 529 of the Internal Revenue Code that is offered by the State of Alabama, administered by the Board of Trustees of the ACES Trust Fund (the "Trust" and plan issuer), marketed as the CollegeCounts 529 Fund, and Union Bank and Trust Company serves as Program Manager. Union Bank and Trust Company is registered as a municipal advisor with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (MSRB). Except for any investments made by a Participant in the Bank Savings 529 Portfolio up to the limit provided by Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") insurance, neither the principal contributed to an Account, nor earnings thereon, are guaranteed or insured by the State of Alabama, the State Treasurer of Alabama, the Board, the Trust, the Program, any other state, any agency or instrumentality thereof, Union Bank and Trust Company, the FDIC, or any other entity. Investment returns are not guaranteed. Account Owners in the Plan assume all investment risk, including the potential loss of principal.

An investor should consider the investment objectives, risks, and charges and expenses associated with municipal fund securities before investing. This and other important information is contained in the fund prospectuses and the CollegeCounts 529 Fund Program Disclosure Statement (issuer's official statement), which can be obtained by calling 866.529.2228 and at CollegeCounts529.com and should be read carefully before investing. You can lose money by investing in a portfolio. Each of the portfolios involves investment risks, which are described in the Program Disclosure Statement.

An investor should consider, before investing, whether the investor's or designated beneficiary's home state offers any state tax or other benefits such as financial aid, scholarship funds, and protection from creditors that are only available for investments in such state's 529 plan. Investors should consult a tax advisor.

¹ Withdrawals used to pay for qualified higher education expenses are free from federal and Alabama state income tax. Qualified higher education expenses include tuition, fees, books, supplies, and equipment required for enrollment or attendance; certain room and board expenses incurred by students who are enrolled at least half-time; the purchase of computer or peripheral equipment, computer software, or internet access and related services, if used primarily by the beneficiary during any of the years the beneficiary is enrolled at an eligible educational institution; certain expenses for special needs services needed by a special needs beneficiary; apprenticeship program expenses; payment of principal or interest on any qualified education loan of the Beneficiary or a sibling of the Beneficiary (up to an aggregate lifetime limit of $10,000 per individual); up to $20,000 in K-12 Expenses; and Qualified Postsecondary Credentialing Expenses. The earnings portion of a Nonqualified Withdrawal is subject to federal income tax and 10% federal penalty tax. In addition, Alabama provides in the event of a Nonqualified Withdrawal an amount that must be added back to the income of the contributing taxpayer. The amount to be added back will be the amount of the Nonqualified Withdrawal plus 10% of the amount withdrawn.

NOT FDIC INSURED* | NO BANK GUARANTEE | MAY LOSE VALUE
(*Except the Bank Savings 529 Portfolio underlying investment)

CollegeCounts529.com | 866.529.2228

CollegeCounts[™]
Alabama's 529 Fund

Offered by the State of Alabama

UBT 529 SERVICES, a division of
UBT
Union Bank & Trust
Program Manager